CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

In order to provide guidelines and fully implement the Conflict of Interest and Corporate Opportunities provisions under the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics of Digitel Mobile Phils., Inc. ("DMPI" or the "Company") this Conflict of Interest policy is hereby issued.

Rationale -

DMPI, as a utility company in the Philippines imbued with public interest, has a duty to its stakeholders (i.e. stockholders and investors, directors, officers, and employees, customers and business partners; the public it serves; and the government and regulators) to ensure that the principles of integrity, transparency, accountability and fairness are upheld in all transactions and official transactions of DMPI. In this regard, we must make sure that all work-related decisions, actions or inactions of DMPI directors, officers, employees and consultants are above-board and based on sound business principles and judgment and devoid of bias or partiality.

General Statement of the Policy -

As a policy, transactions which are or may have the potential of being deemed as Conflict of Interest transactions are prohibited. All business decisions of the Directors, Employees and Consultants must be based on the best interest of DMPI and its subsidiaries and affiliates and must not be motivated by personal considerations and other relationships that can interfere with their independent judgment.

Applicability -

a) This policy shall apply to, and be implemented by, all members of the Board of Directors (each, a "Director" and collectively, the "Directors"), officers, executives, and employees (each, an "Employee" and collectively, the "Employees") and Consultants<sup>1</sup> of DMPI ("DMPI" or the "Company").

Directors, Employees and Consultants may become involved in situations where their private interests or those of their Affiliates may conflict with the interest of

Only with respect to business transactions not covered by the scope of their professional engagement that are made or entered into with DMPI and/or PLDT directly or indirectly through corporations or firms they or their Affiliates represent or where they or their Affiliates own more than ten percent (10%) of the subscribed capital or equity of such corporations or firms, or partnerships where they or their Affiliates are general partners.

DMPI and its subsidiaries<sup>2</sup>. It is the obligation of each Director, Employee and Consultant to avoid any actual or apparent Conflict of Interest between DMPI and its subsidiaries and the Director/Employee/Consultant and/or his Affiliate. At all times, Directors, Employees and Consultants must be loyal to DMPI and its subsidiaries.

This policy sets standards to govern conduct in such situations.

- b) It is the intention of the DMPI Board that a similar policy shall be adopted and implemented by each DMPI Subsidiary and their respective subsidiaries, and the respective Presidents of these companies shall recommend the adoption of this policy (or a similar one) to their respective Boards of Directors.
- Definitions For purposes of this policy,
  - a) Affiliate any person, entity, organization, business or venture with whom/which a Director, Employee or Consultant has an affiliation, personal relationship or financial involvement. These include, among others:
    - i. Relatives (as hereunder defined).
    - ii. Associates (as hereunder defined).
    - iii. Corporations or firms where a Director/Employee/Consultant and/or his Relative holds a position as director, officer or executive of such corporations or firms.
    - iv. Corporations or firms where a Director/Employee/Consultant and/or his Relative either singly or collectively, holds/owns more than ten percent (10%) of the subscribed capital or equity of such corporations or firms.
    - v. Corporations or firms wholly or majority owned or controlled by the corporation or firm where a Director/Employee/Consultant and/or his Relative, either singly or collectively, holds/owns more than ten percent (10%) of the subscribed capital or equity of such corporations or firms.
    - vi. Partnerships of which a Director/Employee/Consultant or his Affiliate is a general partner.
    - vii. A co-ownership in which a Director/Employee/Consultant or his Affiliate is one of the co-owners of a property sold, assigned or leased to DMPI or any of its subsidiaries, except where the sale, assignment and/or lease covers only the other co-owner's (who is not the Director/Employee/Consultant or his Affiliate) undivided interest in the property.
  - b) Associates third parties with existing or previous close personal or business affiliation or relationship with a Director, Employee or Consultant in view of which &lt;sup>2</sup> For purposes of this Policy, subsidiary shall mean a company where the parent company is the legal or beneficial owner of more than fifty percent (50%) of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the subsidiary company.

- a Director, Employee or Consultant's decisions or actions in the best interest of DMPI and/or its subsidiaries is unduly affected or compromised.
- c) Conflict of Interest occurs when the private interest of a Director, Employee, Consultant and/or his Affiliate interferes or appears to interfere in any way with the interest of DMPI and/or its subsidiaries. It can arise when a Director, Employee or Consultant has interests that may make it difficult to perform his or her work objectively and effectively regardless of whether he or his Affiliate receives or will receive Personal Benefit (as hereinafter defined). Conflict of Interest can also arise when a Director, Employee, Consultant and/or his Affiliate receives or will receive improper Personal Benefit from a transaction with DMPI and/or its subsidiaries as a result of the Director, Employee or Consultant's position in DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries.
- d) Consultants includes professional consultants, firms, partnerships, counsels, or such other professional entities or individuals rendering professional or specialized expert services to DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries, as well as advisors of the Company who may be appointed by the Board of Directors or the President/CEO, or who act as representatives of the Company's investors, shareholders, affiliates or partners.
- e) Employee any individual hired by DMPI for salaries and/or benefits provided in regular amounts at stated intervals in exchange for services rendered personally for the Company's business on a regular basis and who does not provide such services as part of an independent business. This includes DMPI's officers, managers, supervisors, staff or non-supervisors and, only for purposes of these guidelines, Subsidiaries' employees who also work for/serve DMPI (e.g. on a seconded basis).
- f) Personal Benefit refers to gain or advantage, whether material or non-material, directly or indirectly provided to or received by a Director, Employee, Consultant and/or his Affiliate, such as financial gain, professional advancement, travel, facilities and/or accommodation, benefits, entertainment, preferential treatment in personal transactions, and other similar advantages.
- g) Relatives relative of up to the third degree, by consanguinity, affinity or legal adoption, including spouse, parents, children (and their spouses) siblings, (and their spouses), nieces and nephews (limited to children of brothers or sisters) [and their spouses], grandparents, and aunts and uncles (limited to sisters or brothers of parents); and a domestic partner and his relatives of up to third degree, by consanguinity, affinity or legal adoption.
- 5. Areas in which Conflicts of Interest May Arise The areas enumerated are descriptive only and not exhaustive. Other areas not described herein shall be evaluated on a case to case basis within the standards and parameters set forth in this Policy. Examples of violations of the policy in each area are found in Annex "A" hereof.
  - a) Dealings with and as Suppliers, Contractors, Business Partners, Consultants, and Third Parties

Directors, Employees and Consultants are enjoined from giving undue preferential treatment to any individual or entity with whom DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries does business. Further, Directors, Employees and Consultants shall avoid circumstances that could, or could be reasonably expected to, impair their objectivity in the performance of their duties and obligations to DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries. In this regard, Directors, Employees and Consultants are proscribed from participating in any part of the transactions, dealings or decision-making process with respect to any existing or potential supplier, contractor, business partner, or consultant of the Company in which they or their Affiliate have an interest, including any acts that may be deemed as seeking to influence any action or inaction with respect to such parties.

Authorized Employees shall select and deal with suppliers, contractors, business partners, consultants, and third parties doing or seeking to do business with DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries in an impartial manner. In this connection, authorized Employees shall award and maintain contracts or transactions on arm's length commercial terms, based only on the best interest of DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries and under strict rules of fairness and confidentiality. The foregoing standards shall also be observed with respect to contracts and transactions between companies within the Group.

b) Dealings with Directors, Employees, Consultants and Prospective Employees or Consultants

Conflict of Interest can arise in a wide range of human resources matters, such as recruitment and selection, promotion, disciplinary procedures, staff development, performance review, benefits, and remuneration. In this area, Directors, Employees and Consultants shall ensure that they treat each other, as well as prospective employees/consultants, with respect, fairness, impartiality, and equal opportunity, including respect for varying views and individual ideas, regardless of rank, seniority or relationship. Directors, Employees and Consultants shall avoid any action or inaction that gives undue preferential treatment or discriminates against any Director/Employee/Consultant or prospective employee/consultant. In this regard, Directors, Employees and Consultants are proscribed from taking part in any decision making process on human resources matters with respect to their Affiliates, including any action that may be deemed as seeking to influence any official action with respect to such Affiliates.

c) Directorships, Executive Positions and Employment in Other Companies or Organizations

Directors, Employees and Consultants shall avoid accepting positions or employment, or carrying out work outside of DMPI or any of its subsidiaries where a Conflict of Interest or loyalty may arise and which may significantly affect the Director, Employee and Consultant's efficiency in the performance of his duties and obligations to DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries, or otherwise adversely affect his work for DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries. For Employees and Consultants, the Human Resources Division ("HRD") shall prescribe the requirements and/or guidelines for permissible outside positions, employment or work. For Directors, the requirements and conditions in this policy shall be in addition to those contained in DMPI's By-Laws, Manual on Corporate Governance, and other applicable laws, rules and regulations.

d) Use of Property, Services and Other Resources

Directors, Employees and Consultants are expected to use the property, services or other resources of DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries responsibly, efficiently, with care and only for purposes authorized or allowed under the policies or guidelines, with care and only for purposes authorized or allowed under the policies or guidelines issued by DMPI or any of its subsidiaries, as the case may be. Accordingly, Directors, Employees and Consultants are reminded to avoid the more than inconsequential use of the property, services or other resources of DMPI or any of its subsidiaries for their Personal Benefit or in a manner not solely for the benefit of DMPI or any of its subsidiaries, unless the applicable policy or guidelines expressly allow personal use of such property, services or other resources (e.g. Company-issued executive cars, cellular phones, landlines, club rights, etc.). The HRD shall be responsible for releasing implementing guidelines with respect to the responsible use of Company-issued properties and/or rights. Further, Directors, Employees and Consultants shall refrain from taking advantage of the property, information of, or their positions in DMPI or any of its subsidiaries, or opportunities arising from these, for their Personal Benefit or to act against the best interest of DMPI or any of its subsidiaries.

e) Dealings with Dealers and Distributors of DMPI's and PLDT Group's Products

Conflicts of Interest may also arise in situations where Directors, Employees, Consultants and/or their Affiliates are or become dealers and/or distributors of the products and services of DMPI and/or any of its subsidiaries. Directors, Employees and Consultants shall ensure that they treat all dealers and/or distributors with respect, fairness, impartiality, and equal opportunity. Directors, Employees and Consultants shall avoid any action or inaction that gives undue preferential treatment or discriminates against any dealer, distributor, or potential dealer/distributor. In this regard, transactions, dealings or decision making process with respect to any dealers or distributors in which they and/or their Affiliate have an interest, including any acts that may be deemed as seeking to influence any such action or inaction with respect to such dealers or distributors.

f) Dealings with Customers or Clients

Directors, Employees and Consultants shall ensure that they treat all customers and clients of DMPI and its subsidiaries with respect, fairness, impartiality, and equal opportunity. Directors, Employees and Consultants shall avoid granting to their Affiliates preferential terms including discounts not ordinarily available to other customers/clients, from which Personal Benefit will be derived by such Affiliate.

g) Prohibited Conflict of Interest Situations

g.1 No Director or officer shall, in breach of his fiduciary duty to the Company, acquire or attempt to acquire directly or indirectly through an Affiliate any business opportunity in the line of the Company's business, in which the Company has an interest or a reasonable expectancy and which the Company is financially able to undertake, where the personal interest of the Director or officer will be in conflict with the interest of the Company.

- g.2 The Company shall not, directly or indirectly, including through any Subsidiary or affiliate, grant or arrange for any credit (or extensions thereof) in the form of personal loans to any Director or officer, unless allowed by applicable laws and regulations.
- 6. What needs to be done Primarily, Directors, Employees and Consultants must disclose in writing any actual or potential instances and/or situations where they may have a Conflict of Interest or the appearance of a Conflict of Interest to the relevant authorities specified herein, as soon as they become aware of such actual or potential instances and/or situations. Depending on the nature of the conflict situation, conflicted Directors, Employees and Consultants may be required to comply with other requirements.
  - a) In situations falling under Item No. 5(a) above, and where the Conflict of Interest business transaction cannot be avoided or where a particular business transaction has the potential of being categorized as a Conflict of Interest business transaction or official action, the Director, Employee or Consultant concerned shall make a full written disclosure of such transaction and his or his Affiliate's private interest in the transaction or official action, as follows:

g) For situations falling under Item No. 5(g) above

Any waiver of the prohibition specified under Item No. 5(g) shall be subject to Board approval and the transaction entered into by the Director or officer shall be subject to ratification by stockholders owning or representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Company's outstanding shares with voting rights.

h) Role of the CGO

Original signed duplicates of all disclosures submitted pursuant to this policy and notices of each approval or disapproval by the relevant authorities referred to above of the transactions or action so disclosed and submitted for approval shall be furnished to the CGO. Approvals or disapprovals shall be in writing and in accordance with this policy and any applicable implementing guidelines. Further, the CGO, upon the request of the relevant approving authorities, may recommend appropriate actions or interpret provisions of this policy to specific apparent or potential conflict situations.

For a summary of the disclosure and other requirements for each area in which a Conflict of Interest may arise, please see Annex "B".

- 7. Consequences of Violations Any Director, Employee or Consultant found to have violated this policy shall, in addition to any penalties that may be provided under the Company Code of Discipline, applicable laws and regulations, be liable to the extent of the damage/loss suffered by DMPI or its relevant subsidiary, and may be subject to penalties and sanctions as may be determined by the appropriate corporate authorities, whether or not damage/loss is actually suffered by DMPI or its relevant subsidiary.
- 8. Effectivity This policy shall take effect upon approval by the Board of Directors. All existing policies, guidelines, regulations, systems, practices and related implementing guidelines concerning the same matters covered herein are deemed superseded by this policy. In the event of any inconsistency between the policy contained herein and the terms of other existing policies, guidelines, systems practices and related implementing guidelines, this policy shall prevail. This policy and the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics have supplemental application to each other.

The HRD shall develop implementing guidelines to ensure that Employees and Consultants are required to periodically disclose their Affiliate and other relationships that may affect the effective and objective performance of their duties. On the other hand, the Administration Logistcs and Purchasing Division ("ALPD") shall ensure that suppliers, contractors, business partners, consultants and other third parties doing or seeking to do business with DMPI shall periodically declare their relationships and/or affiliations, with any DMPI Director, Employee or Consultant as a pre-condition to the commencement or maintenance of the business relationship with DMPI and/or its subsidiaries.

9. Questions – For any questions about this policy or in the determination of whether a Conflict of Interest exists in any particular situation, you may approach your immediate superior, the HRD, the Internal Audit or the DMPI CGO.
