

DIGITEL MOBILE PHILS., INC.

POLICY ON GIFTS, ENTERTAINMENT AND SPONSORED TRAVEL

Consistent with Digitel Mobile Phils., Inc.'s ("DMPI" or the "Company") adherence to the principles of good corporate governance and its avowed principles and values of accountability, integrity, fairness and transparency, this Policy is issued to re-state and define the Company's standing policy on Gifts, Entertainment and Sponsored Travel.

The issuance of this Policy is also in compliance with the recommendation of the Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company ("PLDT"), to have such a policy in all the PLDT subsidiary companies, and the latter's subsidiaries.

1. Rationale -

The giving of Gifts and Entertainment is customary in the normal course of business to enhance good business relationships. However, Directors, Employees and Consultants must be aware that other parties may use this custom of giving of Gifts and Entertainment, including Sponsored Travel, to gain advantages or influence the objectivity of said Directors, Employees and Consultants. Accordingly, this policy contains the general guidelines for Directors, Employees and Consultants on how to handle Gifts, Entertainment and Sponsored Travel offered by Third Parties.

2. General Statement of the Policy -

Directors, Employees and Consultants shall refrain from putting themselves in situations or acting in a manner that could significantly affect the objective, independent or effective performance of their duties and responsibilities in the Company.

In this regard, Directors, Employees and Consultants who have received Gifts, Entertainment and Sponsored Travel from any Third Parties with whom the Company does business or proposes to do business, whether directly or indirectly, shall inform their donor that these were received in behalf of the Company and shall be handled in accordance with Company policy. Sponsored Travel from Third Parties requires disclosure and prior approval from the superior, which approval shall conform to the letter and spirit of this policy.

3. Applicability -

- a) This Policy applies to and shall be implemented by, all members of the Board of Directors (each a "Director" and collectively, the "Directors"), Employees (each, an "Employee" and collectively, the "Employees"), and Consultants of DMPI ("DMPI" or the "Company").

4. Definitions – For purposes of this policy,

- a) Bribe – includes any money, fee, commission, credit, gift, gratuity, thing of value, compensation, personal business and the like, benefits or advantage of any kind that is, directly or indirectly, provided to or received by anyone in his personal capacity for the purpose of obtaining favorable treatment in connection with a business transaction.
- b) Consultants – includes professional consultants, advisors, firms, partnerships, counsels, or such other professional entities or individuals rendering professional or specialized expert services to DMPI as well as advisors of the Company who may be appointed by the Board of Directors or Chief Executive Officer (CEO)/President, or who act as representatives for the Company's investors, shareholders, affiliates or partners.
- c) Customer – an individual or entity that buys products and/or services from DMPI.
- d) Employee – any individual hired by DMPI for salaries and/or benefits provided in regular amounts at stated intervals in exchange for services rendered personally for the Company's business on a regular basis and who does not provide such services as part of an independent business. This includes DMPI officers, executives, supervisors, and rank and file, and for purposes of this policy only, Subsidiaries' Employees who also work for/serve DMPI (e.g., on a seconded basis).
- e) Relatives – relatives of up to third degree, by consanguinity, affinity or legal adoption, including, the Directors', Employee's or Consultant's spouse, parents, children (and their spouses), siblings (and their spouses), nieces and nephews (limited to children of a brother or sister) [and their spouses], grandparents, and aunts and uncles (limited to brothers or sisters of a parent); and a domestic partner and his relatives of up to the third degree, by consanguinity or affinity or legal adoption.
- f) Gifts – a thing(s), present, sponsorships, or any other personal benefit given by Third Parties to Directors, Employees, Consultants, or their Relatives with whom they transact, whether directly or indirectly, in relation to DMPI business dealings, and regardless of the place where such Gifts are offered to or received by a Director, Employee or Consultant.

1. Expensive Gifts – gifts above P4,000.00 in value. These shall be classified as:

- i. Perishable Gift – refers to any food, beverage or flowers that will expire within a month from receipt, or those requiring refrigeration, such as, but not limited to, cakes, pastries and fruits.
- ii. Non-perishable Gift – this includes non-food or non-beverage item, as well as any food or beverage that does not fall under the scope of perishable gifts, such as, but not limited to, gift baskets with bottled/preserved food, packed biscuits/cookies, canned goods or liquor.

2. Token Gifts – gifts valued equal to or below P4,000.00 (regardless of whether it is perishable or non-perishable).

- g) Entertainment – refers to any form of hospitality such as meals for Directors, Employees and Consultants given by Third Parties. It also covers spectator and participative activities (i.e., golf, music, sailing, and other similar activities).
- h) Sponsored Travel – any travel, accommodation and/or attendance/participation in conferences/conventions/seminars, international or domestic, whether for personal or business purposes, the costs of which are fully or partially paid for by Third Parties.
- i) Third Party – an individual, entity, organization and/or its representatives that has existing and/or intended business dealings with the Company. This includes but shall not be limited to prospective or existing suppliers, contractors, buyers, content providers, media, agencies, dealers, Customers, or all other business partners who are or may be similarly situated. This also covers associates (former classmates, co-workers, co-fraternity members, co-members in closed knit associations such as masonry/lodge, etc.) who are also prospective or existing suppliers, contractors, buyers, content providers, media, agencies, dealers, or Customers, or all other business partners who are or may be similarly situated.

5. Detailed Policy Statements -

A. Gifts

1. Solicitation of Gifts from Third Parties shall be avoided; While acceptance of Gifts from Third Parties shall be made in behalf of and surrendered to the Company, subject to the following guidelines:
 - i. Solicitation and/or acceptance of cash, cash/check, gift certificates or other cash equivalents of any amount, free membership or subscriptions (e.g. sport or other clubs), and any Gifts, except as otherwise provided for in the succeeding paragraphs, from Third Parties even if given on occasions of rejoicing or celebration such as Company parties, birthdays, anniversaries, or Christmas, is prohibited.
 - ii. Token Gifts voluntarily given by a Third Party to a Director, Employee or Consultant may be accepted and kept by the recipient.
 - iii.  - iv. Donations in kind such as system equipment to be utilized for the Company's research and development projects may be solicited and/or accepted in behalf of the Company; Provided, however, that in the event that not all donations are accepted, the acceptance parameters and conditions for acceptance shall be made transparent to all Third parties.
 - v. Raffle tickets (or prizes won from such raffle tickets) and other promotional items given to the Company, its Directors, Employees or Consultants for their attendance to certain events, (including but shall not be limited to athletic or social events, anniversary or Christmas parties and the like), conferences, seminars, or product presentations of Third Parties may be accepted and kept by the recipient/winner regardless of the value; Provided, however, that the other participants are likewise entitled to such raffle tickets and given equal opportunity to win prizes;
 - vi. Gifts/tokens of appreciation offered to or received by a Director, Employees or Consultant from Third Parties in connection with such Director, Employee or Consultant's acceptance of an invitation or actual participation as speaker, facilitator or reactors in conferences or seminars sponsored or organized by such Third Parties may be kept by the recipient; Provided, that the other speakers, facilitators and/or reactors are also given similar gifts/tokens of appreciation by relevant Third Parties

- vii. Courtesy discounts given to Directors, Employees and Consultants by Third Parties on the former's personal purchases of products and services of Third Parties are allowed; Provided, that such discounted purchases are made openly and the same terms are made available to all Directors, Employees and Consultants.
2. Directors, Employees or Consultants shall not be eligible to receive Gifts as part of any purchases made by the Company.
 3. The direct or indirect offer, payment, solicitation and/or acceptance of Bribes in any form by a Director, Employee or Consultant from a Third Party and vice-versa, is prohibited.

B. Entertainment

1. The Director, Employee or Consultant shall use his best judgment in determining the propriety and frequency of accepting various forms of Entertainment offered by Third Parties. The following questions may be used as guides for a Director, Employee or Consultant in deciding whether an Entertainment is acceptable:
 - i. Is it related to the conduct of business?
 - ii. Would I feel comfortable telling others about this Entertainment? How would it appear to other Employees or people outside the Company?
 - iii. Do I feel compelled to reciprocate or grant special favors as a result of this Entertainment (or am I trying to constrain Third Parties to reciprocate or grant favors)
 - iv. Am I certain the Entertainment does not violate any law, local or business rules and regulations, the Solicitation and Acceptance of Gifts and Entertainment Policy of Smart, or any other Company rule? Is it contrary to morals or good customs?
2. Meals during business meetings are acceptable.
3. Business meetings in locations that do not conform to accepted standards of propriety and are not conducive for business purposes shall be avoided.

4. Acceptance of invitations to theater, concerts or social/sporting events are permissible; Provided, however, that such invitations are generally available to others in the same community, category or industry. Further, due regard to the frequency of attendance and benefit for the Company shall be considered at all times.
5. Directors, Employees and Consultants shall not use property belonging to Third Parties, their employees, agents and/or representatives such as, but not limited to, vehicles, beach houses, resorts and vacation houses whether for their personal benefit or Company purpose.
6. Directors, Employees and Consultants shall refrain from requesting for or soliciting any form of Entertainment from a Third party including sponsorship for Company activities, non-Company supported charitable works, and/or personal events such as birthdays, weddings, baptisms, etc., or from accepting such Entertainment where such acceptance could impair their objectivity in the performance of their duties and obligations to the Company.

C. Sponsored Travel

1. Sponsorship of the Company or its Director, Employee or Consultant's attendance, which may include travel, accommodation and/or registration expenses in conferences, conventions, exhibits is acceptable; Provided, that the sponsor is an industry/professional organization (e.g. Japan International Cooperation Agency, International Telecommunications Union, etc.) not associated with any Third Party.
2. The Director, Employee or Consultant is obliged to refuse offers of free travel and/or accommodation to conferences, conventions, exhibits, product presentations or other similar events from Third Parties. Attendance at such conferences, conventions, exhibits, product presentations or other similar events shall be allowed only if: (a) it will benefit the Company, (b) is approved by the appropriate approving authority and (c) the Company pays for all expenses associated with such travel. However, in exceptional and justified cases as may be determined in writing by the Chairman of the Board (for Directors) or the President and CEO (for Employees and Consultants), said approving authorities may allow Directors, Employees or Consultants to accept Sponsored travel to conferences, conventions, and such events from Third Parties.
3. Complimentary travel and accommodation for trainings from Third Parties may be permitted if these are part of an approved/existing contract and are deemed to benefit the Company.
4. There are instances when Third Parties provide Sponsored Travel to Directors, Employees or Consultants to local and/or international business/industrial site to demonstrate actual performance of their products/systems (i.e., Proof of Concept¹). Acceptance of such sponsored invitation should be justified by the following:

- i. The purpose of the travel should be business in nature and has a direct benefit to the future performance and business of the Company.
- ii. Knowledge of Directors, Employees or Consultants assigned/chosen for the travel would be valuable to the evaluation of the system and directly related to his job function.

6. What needs to be done – It is the duty of a Director, Employee or Consultant who is offered or receives a Gift, Entertainment and/or Sponsored Travel to immediately disclose the offer or receipt thereof to his respective superior, copy furnished the Corporate Governance Office (“CGO”). These shall be handled in the following manner:

A. Gifts

Type of Gift	Disposition
1 Cash, cash/check certificates, or other cash equivalents of any amount	Shall be politely refused and/or returned to the Third Party.
2 Token Gifts	Shall be kept by the recipient.
3 Expensive Gifts	Shall be politely refused and/or returned to the third-party
i. Non-perishable Gift
ii. Perishable Gift	Shall be shared and consumed by the Employees in the business unit to which the recipient belongs
4 Raffle Prizes	Shall be kept by the winner/recipient

B. Entertainment and Sponsored Travel

In rare occasions when the offers from a Third Party exceed those outlined in Sections 5-B and 5-C, the Director, Employee or Consultant shall discuss such occurrences for approval of the relevant superior (refer to Table below²)

¹ This arrangement involves the Company specifically requesting the vendor to prove that the item being offered for testing is capable of meeting the Company’s requirements and thus applicable to its existing network or system. If demonstration procedure needs to be done outside the country, such must be included in the vendor’s offer, proposal or quotation to prove the item’s applicability or capacity. This may be made manifest through the Company-issued Request for Proposal (RFP) and part of the Company’s evaluation procedure.

² If the Superior refers to the President and CEO, the CGO must be provided a summary of actions taken.

before acceptance. In all events, however, proper documentation, disclosure, reporting, approval and liquidation procedures, as required under Company systems practice and implementing guidelines, shall be followed.

In cases where a Relative³ of a Director, Employee or Consultant solicits and/or accepts Gifts, Entertainment and Sponsored Travel from Third Parties without adhering to the parameters set forth in this policy, the Director, Employee or Consultant shall promptly, upon his discovery or awareness of such fact, disclose the same in writing to his relevant superior.

The superior with respect to the following shall be:

Position	Superior
a. Director, President and CEO and COO	a. Board of Directors through its Chairman
b. Officers	b. President and CEO
c. Rank & File, Supervisors, Executives and Consultants	c. Group Head

It is also the duty of a Director, Employee or Consultant to immediately report to his superior any attempt by Third Parties to undermine the former's transparency, integrity, fairness, accountability and objectivity in performing his functions by the offer of Gifts or other inducements.

The Board of Directors, officers and executives must ensure that any Director, Employee or Consultant who reports a suspected violation of this policy by fellow Directors, Employees or Consultants is protected from any form of retaliation.

7. Consequences of Violations – Any Director, Employee, or Consultant who fails to comply with this policy shall be, upon notice and hearing, subjected to penalties and sanctions as may be determined by the appropriate corporate authorities.

Third Parties found to have defied this policy shall be penalized.

8. Implementing Guidelines – Appropriate implementation guidelines and monitoring and measuring systems shall be developed by the Human Resources (HR) Division in coordination with relevant business units such as the Administration Logistics and Purchasing Division (ALPD) and the Network Services Division (NSD).

The President and CEO may reassess the ceiling price of the Token Gifts and baseline price of the Expensive Gifts annually. If the exigencies so warrant, a written directive from the President and CEO shall be issued to adjust these prices; Provided, that such adjustment of prices shall not be made more than once a year.

³ Relatives are deemed to have solicited or accepted Gifts, Entertainment and Sponsored Travel from Third Parties if the relationship of the relevant Relative with the Third Party arises from the relationship of the Director, Employee or Consultant vis-à-vis the Company to the Third Party.

9. Effectivity – This Policy, shall take effect upon approval by the Board of Directors.

10. Repeal – All existing policies, systems, practices, and related implementing guidelines concerning the same matters covered by this Policy are deemed superseded by this Policy. In the event of any inconsistency between the policy and guidelines contained in this Policy and the terms of other existing policies, systems, practices and related implementing guidelines, this Policy shall prevail.

11. Questions – For any questions about this policy or in the determination of whether a situation violates or potentially violates this policy, you may approach your respective superior, HRD, ALPD, and the CGO.
